

Good afternoon,

Welcome to the New Fortnightly Newsletter!

Once a fortnight one of the Committee members will update you on the latest news from the thriving Basingstoke – Old Basing U3A. I'm Richard Field, your new Webmaster, following the recent sad death of Harvey Wallace and I have volunteered to write the first one.

New Website

Great news! We now have a new website, taking advantage of all the latest technologies, capturing the latest news and making it more interactive.

Here's a link to the new website: <https://www.basingstokeu3a.org/>

Please have a look at it. We aim to update it weekly. Please send any comments or changes you would like to secretary@basingstokeoldbasingu3a.co.uk

Groups are Running!

As the Covid 19 Lockdown eases, we are running an ever-increasing number of groups.

Outdoor groups are now able to run, subject to Government guidelines.

Croquet are now operating as normal, with small numbers participating, following Croquet Association and government guidelines.

Cycling group are keeping active with a cycling treasure hunt and a Zoom meeting each week to give the answers to the clues.

Walkers are now operating again, keeping social distance and arriving in separate cars, with 6 walkers per group.

Indoor Groups cannot yet meet indoors, however:

Needles & Pins are now holding 2 hour Zoom meetings every two weeks. At the first meeting on 3rd July. 17 members attended, showcasing their work and having a general catch up.

History are now holding full length monthly Zoom meetings and ran the first one on 1st July, with a presentation on WWI and WWII communications to 20 members.

Poetry Appreciation has a monthly email sharing session against a group theme [e.g. this month study of Robert Frost], with some of us then concluding with a more in depth full length Zoom meeting to discuss, in which 2 poems are chosen and 1 is read. Recent poets studied include T.S. Eliot and Gerard Manley Hopkins.

Science & Technology are holding 2 hour meetings on Zoom, every two weeks, where there is a presentation by a volunteer speaker from the group, followed by a Q&A session.

Strings and Things 6 members now meet and play in the Group Leader's garden, complying with social distancing guidelines.
